

Asking for Permission

We use 'can' to ask permission to do things. We do not change the verb form after 'can'.

e.g. Can we eat in the library? No, you can't.

Practice

Write questions to ask for permission using 'can'.

1. A: _____ (I / sleep on the train)
B: Yes, you can.
2. A: _____ (we / run in the classroom)
B: No, you can't.
3. A: _____ (I / draw on the wall)
B: No, you can't.
4. A: _____ (I / surf the Internet here)
B: Yes, you can.
5. A: _____ (we / play badminton here)
B: Yes, you can.
