

The children are reading some news articles.

Hong Kong News

MONDAY, 22ND JANUARY 20XX

A4 Local News

Young cyclist injured in road accident

Claudia Smith

A 12-year-old cyclist was injured in an accident in Happy Valley at 6 p.m. yesterday. The boy was riding his bicycle on Shan Kwong Road when the accident happened. 5

The boy crashed into a car while he was cycling at full speed. He broke his right leg and suffered minor head injuries. The police found his slippers five metres away from the 10 scene.

An ambulance took the boy to Tang Shiu Kin Hospital.

A cycling coach commented, ‘The boy wore the wrong clothing and didn’t 15 slow down before he made the turn.’

The police cordoned off Shan Kwong Road for an hour after the accident.

Firefighters free kitten trapped in pipe

Joseph Cheung

Four firefighters rescued a kitten from an old water pipe in Mong Kok yesterday afternoon.

The animal had been trapped for three days inside the unused water pipe.

The frightened kitten moved further into the pipe while firefighters were drilling into the pipe. It was still trapped after two hours. However, the kitten slid out 5 when its owner, Maggie Wong, called its name.

Wong was happy to have the kitten back. The pet was hungry but in good shape.

The firefighter drilled into the pipe to free the kitten.

You can read more news on the Internet:
<http://www.news.gov.hk/en/index.shtml>
<http://timeforkids.com/TfK/kids/news>